Possessive Nouns/Showing Ownership

A possessive noun shows who or what something belongs to. Singular nouns are made possessive by adding 's.

Example: The book that belongs to Laci is on the table. → Laci's book is on the table.

Example: The tail of the dog is wagging. → The dog's tail is wagging.

Directions: Rewrite each sentence with a possessive noun to show ownership.

1. The handle bars that belong to the bike are rusty.
