

assess

to set the value or ability of something compensate to make up for something; to pay for deteriorated

made or became steadily worse devastating capable of causing ruin or destruction implement to put into action; to carry into effect peripheral of or pertaining to the outer edges of something; such as the field of vision potential possibility; capacity to become something summit

the highest point, as of a hill or mountain