

Vocabulary Words

Unit 1.3

classification- the act of sorting things into groups or classes compartment- a separate division or section engulfs- swallows up or covers completely flanked- to be found at the side of something maneuvering- moving or managing skillfully or cleverly obscure- to hide; to make hard to see or understand species- a group of related living things with very similar characteristics submerged- underwater or covered with liquid; beneath the surface