

controlled

adjusted or moved by something else direction

line or course something moves along

flight

the act of flying

impossible

something that cannot be done

launched

put into motion

motion

the act of moving

passenger

a person who travels in a vehicle

popular

liked by many people