

Vocabulary Words

Unit 5.1

industrial- using technology or machinery for production, usually on a large scale inefficient- unable to use time, effort, or money wisely manipulation- clever or skillful control or management modification- an alteration or change mutated- changed or transformed, usually genetically over time nutrients- substances needed by plants and animals for life and growth sparse- thinly distributed; not living or growing close together surplus- an amount that is greater than what is used or needed