

Unit 2 Week 3
Text Set 2
Fable

Essential Question:

WHAT CAN ANIMALS IN STORIES TEACH US?

Anchor Text

Wolf! Wolf!

Shared Read

"The Boy Who Cried
Wolf"

Reading Literature

main story elements: character plot: sequence of events

Reading Informational Texts

author's purpose

Fluency

expression

Vocabulary Strategy

context clues, related words, antonyms

Grammar

common nouns, proper nouns, collective nouns

Structural Analysis

prefixes re-, un-, dis-

Mechanics

capital letters

Writing

research report

Research

food chain diagram

Spelling/Phonics

words with soft c and g

OL

trace
place
badge
cage
space
ice
bulge
range
edge
mice
mule
cute
out
wash saw

Vocabulary

believe- to think something is true delicious- good to taste feast- to eat very well fond- enjoying a great deal lessons- things to be taught or learned remarkable- not ordinary; wonderful snatch- to grab quickly stories- tales of things that have happened

High Frequency Words

almost, buy, food, out, pull, saw, sky, straight, under, wash

Oral Vocabulary Words

affection, crave, frustrated, nourishment, seek